Cumulative Potential Value of up to $100.7 Million

MCLEAN, Va. (January 8, 2015) – DynCorp International (DI) has been awarded two contracts from the U.S. Army Contracting Command to provide advisory, training and mentoring services to the Afghanistan Ministry of Interior (Mol/Afghanistan National Police) and the Afghanistan Ministry of Defense (MoD/Afghanistan National Army).

“We have supported the U.S. Army and coalition forces in providing this specialized training since 2010,” said Randy Bockenstedt, DynLogistics senior vice president, DynCorp International. “We are honored to be able to continue this partnership and contribute to strengthening the Afghan national security forces.”

DI team members will provide personnel, equipment, supplies, facilities, transportation, tools, materials, supervision, and other items and non-personal services necessary to perform dedicated in-depth advising, mentoring, training, and programmatic support to assist the Afghanistan Mol and MoD.

The firm-fixed-price, cost reimbursable contract to support the Afghanistan National Police has a nine-month base period with two three-month option periods, for a total potential value of $52.1 million. The firm-fixed-price, cost reimbursable contract to support the Afghanistan National Army has a nine-month base period with two three-month option periods, for a total potential value of $48.6 million.
